Frequently Asked Questions

2019

Access

Is there ample parking?

There is plenty of free parking for each showing.

How far is the parking from the event area?

There is a short walk on grass of around 100-200 metres (depending on where you park).

Is there disabled parking?

Disabled parking is available and will be signposted on the night. Access to the event is across grass and gravel pathways.

How do we enter the event?

Entrance to the site is made through the Pilsgate Lodges on the Barnack Road.

Entry to the event area is made through the North Court gates rather than through the Orangery as last year.

Can my taxi drop me off and pick me up?

There will be clear signage to direct your taxi to drop off and pick up points.

Opening Times

What time do the gates open?

Gates for the DAY screenings open at 10.30am.

Gates for the EVENING screening open at 5.30pm

Do I have to be arrive when the gates open?

Gates open ahead of the film screenings and you do not have to be here at opening as a fixed time. Please note, however, that if you are arriving once films have started you should find a space to sit at the rear of the event area to prevent disrupting other visitors.

Retail

Will there be a shop?

A pop-up shop will be in the South Gardens throughout the Film Festival selling a variety of items and should the need arise (which we hope it will not) it will stock umbrellas.

Facilities

Are there toilets outside?

The event area has ample toilet facilities.

Are there disabled toilets?

Disabled toilets are available in the event area.

Catering

Are barbecues allowed?

Personal barbecues are not permitted within the Park. We will be serving our own fantastic festival food, including American diner classics from our airstream trailer throughout the Film Festival.

Can I buy a hot drink?

Hot and cold drinks will be available to purchase throughout the event.

Can I bring a picnic with me?

While we will be serving delicious food and drink throughout the event, visitors are very welcome to bring their own picnics with them. All rubbish must be cleared away at the end of the screenings in the bins provided.

Miscellaneous

What should I wear?

As the night goes on it may become chilly outside... Fancy dress is encouraged so come along dressed as your favourite characters.

Can I bring a gazebo?

Gazebos are not permitted as it may infringe on the view of other visitors, however one metre high small children's sun screens are allowed at the side of the gardens so they do not block visitors view.

Is seating provided?

Burghley deckchairs are available to hire for just £5 a session, subject to availability. Visitors are welcome to bring picnic rugs and pop-up chairs.

Can I leave my car over night?

Cars can be left in the Park over night, however they MUST be removed before the gates open for the next day's screening (before 10.00am).

Are dogs on a lead able to come?

As the event is taking place in the South Gardens, dogs will not be able to enter the Film Festival.

Wet Weather Contingency

What if it rains?

Tickets are non-refundable, so please bring appropriate wet weather clothing. Umbrellas are allowed but no larger than one meter high. The films will be shown rain or shine!

Can I bring a gazebo/parasol or large golf umbrella if it is wet?

These are not permitted even if it rains as it may infringe on the view of other visitors.
